Support From Where You Began!

Think of the PWP as one more step towards insuring your success as a practitioner in the field of healing arts and wellness practices for years to come. We are here, where you began your journey, to provide support for the journeys yet to come.

As a Red Level Member you have access to affordable healing arts services (a MUST for self-care!), growth opportunities through the PWP, networking with other practitioners, continuing your professional development, and the opportunity be a resource for other students and colleagues.

Your investment in an Orange Level membership adds more tools to your toolbox: discounted Continuing Education Classes and Workshops; product and equipment discounts; access to current job postings; and inclusion on all of our partners' website's Alumni and Friends Pages.
